DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 12 and 16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Baron (US 4,761,071).

Baron shows an apparatus and method for determining corneal and scleral topography comprising a restricting member (aperture 102) disposed at a position in an optical path that is optically conjugate with said surface (eye) to be measured.

As for claim 16, Baron shows an eye which meets the limitations. Furthermore, claim 16 does not structurally limit the difference of the optical member to another optical member that has not been measured using the surface shape measuring apparatus of the present invention, therefore any optical member would meet the limitations of claim 16..

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 13-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Baron as applied to claims 12 and 13 above, and further in view of Nakagawa et al (5,184,196).

Baron shows the adjustment of the aperture in two orthogonal directions but does not show the adjustment in the direction of the optical axis.

Nakagawa et al (Nakagawa hereinafter) show an exposure apparatus having an aperture stop placed conjugate with a wafer wherein a controller (100) controls the placement of the stop.

At the time of the invention, one of ordinary skill in the art would have used a controller of Nakagawa in order to precisely control the placement of the stop in all three orthogonal directions.

As for the use of mirrors, reflective aperture stops are well known in the art and one of ordinary skill in the art would have used reflective stops in order to control the direction of the rays reflected/blocked by the stop rather than using a non-reflective stop where the stopped/blocked rays can reflect diffusely in an uncontrolled manner.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The following prior arts show an aperture or stop optically conjugate with a sample being measured:

US Patent No. 4,942,733

US Patent No. 4,117,322

US Patent No. 4,283,147

US Patent No. 4,305,398

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
